CLIENT AGREEMENT

It is agreed that the Client represents that its work site complies with all OSHA and other applicable rules and regulations.

It is agreed that CER is entitled to collect a fee upon hire of any CER candidate within one year of presentation or temporary employment. The presentation of a candidate includes either temporary or direct-hire placement and/or introduction or resume submittal of potential candidate, for any position within the Client organization. The fee is calculated based upon CER's fee schedule.

CER will not be held responsible for any claims of alleged wrongful acts on the part of the employee unless such claims against CER's dishonesty bond are reported in writing within ten (10) working days of the discovery of the supposed act.

The Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold CER and its affiliates harmless from any & all liability, costs, claims, judgements, expenses (including attorney's fees) or damages related to such employee's actions or omissions while performing services for the Client. Furthermore, the Client shall hold CER and its affiliates harmless from any liability for any action or omissions of any employee placed as a direct-hire by CER.

It is agreed that the insurance furnished by CER does not cover the operation of any motor vehicles licensed for highway use by any CER employee, nor does it cover physical loss or damage of machinery, equipment, or materials while in the care, custody, or control of a CER employee.

It is agreed that the Client shall accept full responsibility for bodily injury, property damage, fire, theft, collision, or public liability claims arising out of the operation of a licensed motor vehicle for the Client.

CER assumes no responsibility if a CER employee handles cash, securities, or other valuables. A CER accounting employee cannot render a professional opinion on any financial statement on behalf of CER. A CER employee cannot sign his/her name or the CER name to any financial statement or any tax return while on an assignment to a client.
